

Matthew 20:1-16

Jesus tells a story of a landowner who pays all the workers the same, even though they have worked different amounts of time. This seems unfair to some.

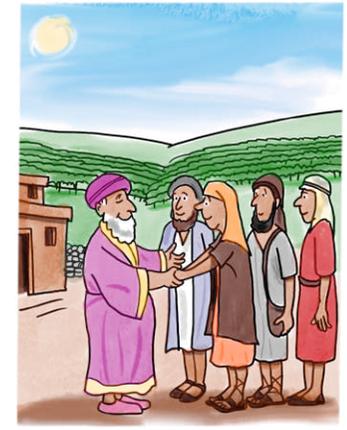

God is kind to everyone.

Can you add speech bubbles to the colouring picture for the landlord and some of the workers?

Jesus says

Can you put these pictures in the right order so that you can retell the story of the workers in the vineyard that Jesus told.

Draw!

All the workers were paid the same. Draw three different feelings they had in the face shapes here.
