

Luke 17.11-19

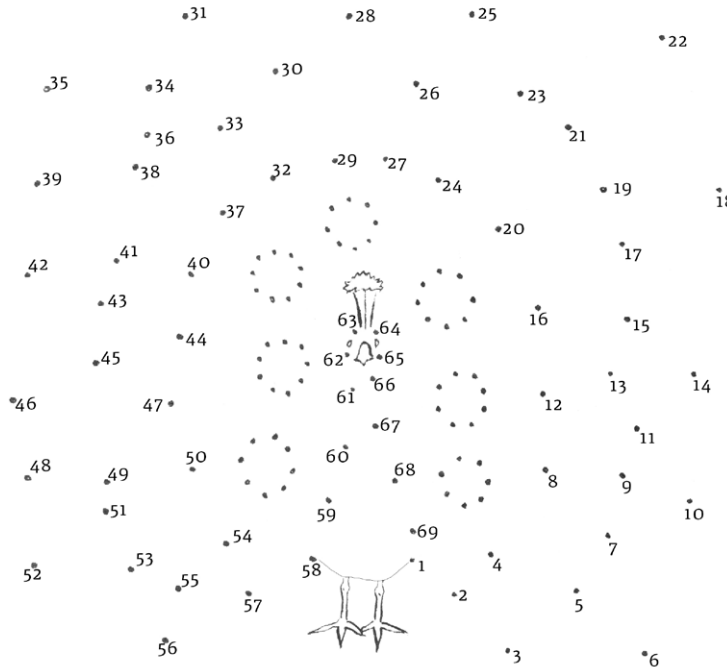

After Jesus heals people, the person who seems the least important remembers what really matters.

Only one of the ten men whom Jesus healed remembered to say thank you.

When we only see part of a person, we don't really see them at all. What do you think this picture shows? Join the dots and colour it in bright colours to see if you're right.

Take out all the z and x letters in this coded message and replace each v with a space to reveal an important verse in today's Bible passage. Write it out below.
