StF 186 - Tell out my soul, the greatness of the Lord.

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord!
Unnumbered blessings give my spirit voice;
Tender to me the promise of His Word;
In God my Saviour shall my heart rejoice.

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of His name!
Make known His might, the deeds His arm has done;
His mercy sure, from age to age the same;
His holy Name, the Lord, the mighty One.

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of His might!
Powers and dominions lay their glory by;
Proud hearts and stubborn wills are put to flight;
The hungry fed, the humble lifted high.

Tell out, my soul, the glories of His Word!
Firm is His promise, and His mercy sure.
Tell out my soul, the greatness of the Lord
To children's children and for evermore!

Bible readings

Psalm 23 John 10.1-10

Reflection:

Psalm 23 is a well-known Psalm in the Bible and is often associated with comfort and peace, particularly when someone is unwell. It is a psalm of David and portrays God as a loving shepherd who provides, protects, and guides his followers.

The Lord is my Shepherd

Psalm 23:1-2, I shall not be in want means that because God is our provider, protector, and guide. He is like a shepherd who cares for sheep and ensures that they have food, water and safety.

He leads me beside quiet waters highlights that God provides peaceful, places to rest and causes us to stop for rest and renewal when we are too busy, anxious, or exhausted to do so.

Sheep will not lie down to rest unless they are free from fear, free from friction from other sheep or being plagued by flies, parasites or pests and have been fed. Psalm 4 v 8 says in peace I will lie down and sleep, for you alone, O Lord, will keep me safe.

He restores my soul

Psalm 23:3-4, God heals a tired or wandering spirit, restoring inner peace and spiritual strength. As a Shepherd, He rescues believers from exhaustion and restores them. Restoration by seeking God in prayer brings peace and life, hope, and purpose, after loss, or spiritual exhaustion. It is a renewal of strength. This restoration helps the follower to pass through the "valley of the shadow of death" without fear, confident in the Shepherd's presence and protection.

Trusting God

Psalm 23:5-6 These verses encourage us to continually place our trust in God, knowing that He will walk with us through every season of life, and that His goodness and mercy will be our faithful companion.

Restoration and Renewal

Continuing restoration and renewal comes through three things, firstly through God's word which uses the words in the Bible to restore the soul. Secondly seeking God through prayer brings peace and finally reading the Bible helps to restore the soul.

Prayer of adoration

Almighty God, in your Son you took on frail flesh that we might know and understand you better.

God revealed in Christ, we worship and adore you.

Lord Jesus Christ, you humbled yourself to be born as one of us and called yourself the Good Shepherd.

Jesus, Good Shepherd, we worship and adore you.

Holy Spirit, God sent you to descend upon Jesus as a dove.

Holy Spirit, messenger of God, we worship and adore you.

Amen.

A prayer of confession

Lord, we confess that we are complacent about our Christian lives.

When things are going well,
we tend to take you for granted.

We bask in the safety and security we enjoy,
and fail to acknowledge the danger lurking all around.

We fail to heed your voice;
perhaps we have forgotten what you sound like.

You, Lord, are the gateway to life,
who leads us to safe pastures, as long as we heed your voice.

We recommit ourselves to listening for you, Lord,
and living in the abundance of your love. Amen.

Assurance of forgiveness

O Lord, who calls to us always,
you forgive us when distractions drown out your voice.

You forgive us when we are led astray
and wait to welcome us back.

Good Shepherd, we are humbled by your patience and endless capacity to forgive. Amen.

Prayer of praise and thanksgiving

Lord, we thank you for calling us here each week,
to this place where we can tune into your voice
and drown out the din of the world's voices.

We praise you for the deep knowledge we have of you,
the trust of a flock for their Good Shepherd.

Thank you, Lord Jesus, for teaching us to hear your voice in the Gospels
and in the stillness of our personal prayer.

Good Shepherd, may we ever raise our voices in praise,
to the one whose firm, gentle command is our gateway to life in all its abundant fullness. Amen.

The Lord's my Shepherd by Stuart Townend

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me lie in pastures green.
He leads me by the still, still waters,
His goodness restores my soul.

*And I will trust in You alone,
And I will trust in You alone,
For Your endless mercy follows me,
Your goodness will lead me home.*

He guides my ways in righteousness,
And He anoints my head with oil,
And my cup, it overflows with joy,
I feast on His pure delights.

And though I walk the darkest path,
I will not fear the evil one,
For You are with me, and Your rod and staff
Are the comfort I need to know.

Sending out prayer

Lord, as we leave this place of worship, go before us. Let us hear your voice this week and lead us through the gate to live an abundant life with you.
Amen.

Blessing

May the peace of the Lord Christ go with you, wherever He may send you.
May He guide you through the wilderness, protect you through the storm.
May He bring you home rejoicing at the wonders He has shown you.
May He bring you home rejoicing once again into our doors.
Amen
