

John 3.1-17

Nicodemus struggles to understand fully who Jesus is and to leave his life and learning behind to follow him.

Following Jesus leads us into new life and experiences.

As we move into spring, can you add signs of new life (e.g. flowers and animals) around the signpost?

The wind has blown through the words and jumbled them up. Can you rearrange the letters and find the words from today's passage?
